The spending limit for your campaign is calculated based on the number of electors who are eligible to vote for the office that you are running for. The Municipal Elections Act, 1996 provides that the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing will prescribe the campaign spending limits. The maximum amount of campaign expenses set by the Minister is:

- 1. in the case of the office of head of council of a municipality, a total amount of,
 - (a) $7,500, plus
 - (b) 85 cents for each elector entitled to vote for the office, and
- 2. in the case of any other office, a total amount of,
 - (a) $5,000, plus
 - (b) 85 cents for each elector entitled to vote for the office.

There is a separate spending limit for expenses related to the holding of parties and other expressions of appreciation after the close of voting. This spending limit is calculated as ten percent of the amount of your general spending limit.

The contribution limit is calculated based on the number of electors who are eligible to vote for the office that you are running for. Section 88.9.1 of The Municipal Elections Act, 1996 prescribes the formula to calculate the maximum contributions to a candidate's own election campaign. The formula to calculate the limit is:

- 1. in the case of the office of head of council of a municipality, a total amount of,
 - (a) $7,500, plus
 - (b) 20 cents for each elector entitled to vote for the office, to a maximum of $25,000, and
- 2. in the case of any other office, a total amount of,
 - (a) $5,000, plus
 - (b) 20 cents for each elector entitled to vote for the office, to a maximum of $25,000.

Note: The contribution limit applies to the total amount of contributions made by yourself and/or your spouse to your campaign. This includes any contributions of goods and the replacement value of any inventory from a previous campaign that you are using in your current campaign.
